Give Lawn Social

Under the auspices of the LaPearl Young Peoples Society, a Lawn Social was held at the church on the evening of June 9th.

Although we were threatened by a storm in the early part of the evening the weather cleared up and the evening was beautiful.

Quite a large crowd attended and everybody reports having had a good time.

The early part of the evening was devoted to playing games on the lawn. Charles Clifford and M. Moncrieff were in charge of same.

A booth was erected, Miss Moncrieff and Misses Edna and Wilma Morrison being in attendance. The lawn was beautifully lighted by colored lanterns strung on wires.

After the games everybody repaired to the church where lunch was served under the superintendence of Miss Francis Morrison who was dressed to represent Canada, and Miss Elizabeth Morrison dressed to represent A Gilpey Queen.

Twenty-eight dollars were taken in, but of which expenses are to be paid. We were very sorry Mr. Mitchellson was not able to be present, but we hope to have him amongst us soon again.

The Young People wish to thank all those who so kindly assisted them.

Mr. James Swan

Prosperity Pioneer Dies At Winnipeg

One of the first Prosperity Pioneers has passed away.

James Swan, late of "The Grove" Chauvin, Alberta, passed away on June 4th at 79 Donald St. Winnipeg.

He along with Mr. A. Ferguson and W. O. Harris, were the first people in the Prosperity District.

He suffered much during the last six months from that most terrible malady, cancer. His two sons Jeff and Billy, were sent for and arrived just a few hours before he passed away. The funeral took place on Tuesday last, at Springfield, Manitoba.

His wife, four grown sons and two small daughters are left to mourn his loss.

G. G. Sunday

Set For June 19th

It is hoped that the 3 local branches of the S.G.C.A. (Brady, Merton and Fram) will hold a United Service in Brady Schoolhouse on the above date. A special programme is being arranged and Mr. J. Park will conduct the service. This date has been set apart by the Provincial Executive throughout Saskatchewan as Association Sunday. All Grain Growers should make a point of being present at this service at Brady School June 19th at 3.30 p.m.

"Do it now" is a pretty good rule and one that should not be forgotten in Gopher Poisoning. One gopher killed now will save a lot of trouble later.

strychnine, Gophericide, Kill-Em-Quick, Micklesons, My Own and Eveready always in stock.

Mr. Gray has kindly consented to allow the use of his large granary in Artland for services on every alternate Sunday evening.

The new telephone book should soon be in the hands of subscribers, and will save endless worry.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Powers and Mr. and Mrs. G. Schollin have both been visited by Mr. Stork and a son left in each case. Congratulations.

Election passed off quietly. No big "bust ups".

She impressed in each individual the necessity of cheerfulness, optimism and loyalty to the organization; pointing out that one disgruntled member, constantly "on the job" (in current phrase) could wreck the Society.

Of those of us who rue no voices in Institute work and rather busy as to its aims and its value, the story of the plucky little society thirty-eight miles from a railroad was an enlightening.

distributed properly will supply a good crop of fruit. By pruning, sufficient opening can be made for the autumn sun to light the fruit.

The average yield of red currants is estimated at 150 bushels per acre, with the black currants somewhat less. Among the best varieties of currants are: Red, Red Dutch, Cumberland Red, Ruby Castle, Black, Kerr's, Strawberry, Magnum, Black, Chalm's, White-White Grape, Large White, White Cherry, White Pearl.

Excellent jelly can be made from red currants and they may also be used for the purpose of making pies and jam. Red currants will remain in condition some time after ripening on the bushes and they do not have to be picked as promptly as the black.

The cultivation of gooseberries in this country is somewhat limited though the prospects for growing them generally—even in the far north-ern districts—are very favorable. The fruit is very refreshing and makes excellent pies and jam. It is not so easy to propagate the gooseberry as the currant and the best result will usually be obtained by a process known as layering. To do this, the bushes should be severally pruned in fall or early spring and a new growth of young shoots induced to grow. When these have made most of their growth the earth is heaped

Best Butter Only For Market Competition

NOTE:—The following is the conclusion of the article published under the same heading last week.

Quality Counts

It is very apparent that some form of production supervision is necessary to educate many of the manufacturers of the necessity of cleanliness and science in the handling of their cream. In order to obtain the present production of large quantities of particularly low grade butter.

New Zealand, Australia, the United States and many other dairy countries have systems in vogue whereby a government official tours a certain district, inspects the milk products, and advises the farmers of the best methods to pursue in order to obtain the best results for their expenditure of capital and labor. Something on the same scale is a vital necessity in Alberta. The system by which the manufacturers pay on a quality basis is an undoubted help, but education is needed more sorely still, and until some system is evolved whereby the milk producer is made to see that it is to his advantage to produce the best article of quality there is but small hope of Alberta reaching her proper place—at the top.

Tariff Equalization

Recent efforts have been made by the producers to secure an equalization of the tariff both to and from

BUILDING GOOD ROADS

Every year the government of Alberta is making the lot of the farmer a happier one, not by paternal legislation, but by practical work, which reduces his labor and increases his conveniences at all times. When settlement was sparse and vehicular traffic comparatively circumscribed, the prairie rills afforded all that was necessary, but when settlement became thick and traffic great, the old trails soon became rutty, and at times failed man's enterprise had to step in and this year alone $1,900,000 are being expended in the province of Alberta in making good roads for the transportation of food use from farms to town.

Not only are the highways being put in decent shape, but bridges are spanning rivers and creeks, hills are being cut down and the grading is generally being conducted in such a manner as to afford ease to man and beast, thus conforming both labor and time. All improvements occupy much time and with limited seasons for this work, too much must not be expected annually, but it may be relied upon that in due time the country will be provided with uniformly good roads and ample bridges for negotiating awkward travels, so that a maximum of stream and transportation may be effected in a minimum of time. Good roads are a national asset and no government too rich can afford to ignore their importance or the imperative of the obligation it owes our population to provide them.

Work is the greatest blessing that life holds; pension off an old man and he soon dies.

as per the letter of the Marsden branch who asked for the co-operation of Fram G.G.A. in buying twine for this season's crop. The matter of the Picnic was then gone into, and it was decided to hold a picnic on the grounds of Mr. P. Wogberg; the date being fixed for July 12th. The Secretary was instructed to issue invitations to the members of the Manitou Lake and Marsden locals. A dance is to follow and Mr. S. Uls kindly undertook to provide the floor. A committee was elected, and Messrs. Pritchard, A. Gabrielson and Wog-berg chosen to act in this capacity together with the lady members of the Association. Councillor Jas. W. Coe was present and spoke on Municipal matters, and especially road work; and enlightened the members on many points on which they themselves admitted ignorance. He answered many questions and was warmly thanked for his address. Before the meeting closed a light lunch was handed round by the 2 lady directors (Mrs. A. Gabrielson and Mrs. K. W. Coe) who kindly provided same which was much appreciated.

A meeting of the directors, and also the picnic committee is called for Saturday evening June 18th at the home of Mr. S. Uls. It is hoped that all members will be present.

Fruit Growing On The Prairies

and planted in nursery rows the following spring to be grown there for a season. English varieties take two years to root and the bush must be left in a partially covered state for that length of time. By treating the American varieties in the same way as for propagating currants, viz., by cuttings, fair degree of success can be obtained. The cuttings should be about six inches or a little over and buried in soil over winter and set out in the nursery rows in the spring or fall with just one or two buds showing above ground.

A good supply of moisture is essential in the cultivation of the gooseberry. The soil should be cool and moist and sandy. Clay loam if it is well drained provides a good location for gooseberry culture. As is the case with the currant, great benefit will be derived from well rotted manure being worked into the soil for the purpose of supplying plant food. Planting cuttings of trees is recommended, to be done in the fall as plants get an early start in the spring and as the leaves drop early in the autumn. The arrangement of the plantation should consist of rows six feet apart and four feet apart in the rows. The cultivation should be thorough through the autumn, as the gooseberry roots near the surface.

In pruning it is usually a good plan to have no wood older than three years. The object should be to have an open head to the bush with a few good shoots regularly distributed. Fruit is grown on year-old wood from spurs from older wood. Branches that are older than three years should be cut away to make way for younger wood. A plantation of gooseberries will keep up its usefulness for a good many years if the upkeep of the soil is properly attended to by the application of rotted barnyard manure and the pruning is done judiciously.

In regard to yield, if the leaves are protected from pests a good crop may be expected as the American gooseberry is a good yielder. This fruit has averaged in five years in the East over 300 bushels per acre. Two of the best varieties are Houghton and Downing. The Houghton is more prolific and hardier, while the Downing bears a fruit of very large size. It is safest to cover the bushes over winter with a mulch as straw manure, to prevent the killing back of the tender shoots.

The raspberry is very popular in Canada and is eaten in various forms such as raw with cream and sugar, as stewed fruit, in pies, and as a preserve. This fruit is practically scattered all over Canada in its native state and extends to districts within the Arctic Circle.

The red raspberry requires for best results a deep, rich, loamy soil which should be cool and moist. The canes which grow one year bear fruit the next and then die and new ones take their place. The best plants for a new plantation are the suckers which grow around the old plants in the spring. Plants should be set out to within six or eight inches of the ground at the time of transplanting.

The soil should be well prepared before the planting takes place. Deep plowing and a good supply of manure are important. A hoe crop on the land the previous season will help considerably in making good growth. The suckering varieties of raspberries should be planted in rows eight feet apart and three feet apart in the row. Another good plan is to plant in hills five feet apart; each then may be cultivated each way. The plants of suckering varieties are set four or five inches deep. As in the cultivation of currants, frequent cultivation is necessary. During cultivation the suckers should be hoed out.

In pruning, the object should be to cut out superfluous canes and leave about six of the strongest for fruiting. It is advisable in the prairie provinces to bend the canes over just before winter and cover with soil for protection. In Canada the yield of raspberries has gone as high as 200 bushels per acre and over. Some of the best varieties of raspberries are: Sunbeam, Ironclad, Herbert, Miller and Turner. The Herbert, Ironclad and Turner produce the largest fruit and the quality is very good. The Caroline may also be mentioned here. It produces a yellow berry which is small but of good flavor. The Sunbeam is small and sour but is a good yielder. It resembles the wild raspberry.

Market Competition Best Butter Only For

Supervision- and Education

The scheme which is in vogue in the United States regarding supervision and education might well be emulated here. There, each state is divided up into counties in charge of a County Agent, who is paid by the county, his function being to oversee farming operations generally, and to give advice, where advice is needed. This agent is a scientist and also a best for the farmer, and he is paid to show him the best methods in vogue.

This system has met with such success that the Federal government is also going to work similar lines: the states have been divided into sections and in each of these a federal officer is on hand to advise the agriculturists, in addition to the county agent.

The agents travel continuously from farm to farm: cows are tested, and the unprofitable animals are weeded out while special advice is given in regard to the separation of cream and so forth.

In Australia similar conditions prevail, but in addition to advise, there is a rigid inspection of all dairy plants; cow yards must be swept clean at least once a week, all the cow barns must have cement floors and be thoroughly whitewashed, and the cream room and separator room must be a certain distance from the cow sheds.

Heavy fines are imposed for any breaches of the dairying act. Although there was at first considerable objection to the scheme, Australians have learned that it pays to be scientific and cleanly, and in the southern continent at the present time, the dairy farmers compose the most prosperous class in the community, while 'Australian butter has a reputation which is hard to excel.

Science of Production
New Zealand is even more rigid than Australia in all that pertains to the science of butter production, and Albertans have good cause to know what this means. The British Columbia market is ours by right and title, if we but exert ourselves to hold it, but it cannot be retained with shipments of second and third class butter.

The issue is a very live and real one, and takes some effort is made to improve the quality of cream this coming summer no doubt whatever exists but that Alberta will have a quantity of butter on hand cannot be sold at any price.

The manufacturers and the real farmers are thoroughly alive to the situation and it should be the duty of every good Albertan to hammer home the slogan of "Poor cream means living thing more akin to a flock of sheep. If the flock is protected it grows new crops of trees on the turned over lands and replaces the trees cut for lumber.

Lumbermen take the mature forest, but fire takes mature trees, saplings, seedlings, and even the soil in which the trees grow. In a country with such great areas of forest land and such a climate as Canada, nature will grow new forests rapidly if only given a chance. But even if it were not so and planting were an absolute necessity to preserve Canadian forests what would be the good of planting if our fire protection were so poor that we allowed these seedlings to be burned up a year after they were planted? Planting in both Europe and Canada is necessary in certain cases, but it cannot be undertaken until there is reasonable assurance (as there is in the settled districts of the provinces) that these plantings will be protected from fire. The first duty of Canadians is to protect their mature timber and their young forests from fire.

A FARM ACCOUNTING SYSTEM THAT IS A GOOD THING FOR ANY FARMER

Duns and Bradstreet, the greatest mercantile agencies, both say that: "Carelessness is the greatest business criminal"—that 60 per cent of failures are due to this cause.

As a class, farmers are apt to be financially careless, very largely because there has hitherto been no complete method—so simple, the ordinary man could follow it—provided for keeping accurate account of their operations.

Scott's SIMPLIFIED Accounting System for Farmers meets this need. It is a form providing for a monthly showing in every branch of farm work for five years—including a detailed inventory which will be accepted by any bank.

Following its simple principles, any farmer can keep accurate accounts—have a perfect check on his expenses—keep system—compiled by a banking expert especially for farmers.

The only system which is given a Systematized Pocket Note Book and simplifies your income tax return.

Ask to see the endorsement of the system by government officials and farmers' organizations officials, and leading financial men.

In other respects the terms and conditions of sale will be the standing conditions of the Supreme Court as approved by the Master in Chambers.
